CHINESE DAY BIG SUCCESS AT SHANGHAI MOTOR SHOW

More Than 3000 Visitors See Exhibits, Enjoy Fine Program

OUTPORTS TODAY

Chairman Friedman Has A Fine Bill Arranged For Tonight

Three thousand Chinese passed through the gates of the Auto Show pavilion yesterday during the celebration of the special "Chinese Day," and made up fully two thirds of the attendance for the day.

The entertainment had been arranged for the benefit of the Chinese, and the acts given between the dances during the evening were purely of an Oriental character. The Chin Woo Athletic Association gave an exhibition of Chinese juggling, boxing and magic that drew loud applause of the foreign visitors as well as of the Chinese.

The program for today's entertainment at Verdun Gardens has been arranged to celebrate an "Outport Day" and the out-of-town visitors will be given the glad hand of welcome and shown the delights of Shanghai's first motor exhibition.

The program for the evening will follow the order of the other special days and will include as a special feature the Spanish dancing of Carmen and Carmencita. Miss Gracie Haimovitch will appear as one of the leads on the Carlton stage.

Last night's festivities in the dancing pavilion were distinguished by a fine feeling of fellowship between Chinese and foreigners. The Chinese numbers on the program were all well received, and all were of the highest character. The Cantonese music was a revelation to the foreigners present, most of whom had never had a previous opportunity to hear Chinese music at its best.

Prof. Lee, who entertained with several sleight of hand tricks, kept the big crowd thoroughly amused for more than half an hour. After watching him, one wondered how he ever escaped the professional stage. Mr. Lee is himself a motor car owner, and a member of the show's Executive committee. Ever since the project was started he has acted as the point of contact between Chinese and foreigners, and has been instrumental in ironing out many difficulties. He speaks English perfectly, as though born to that tongue.

After watching him do his "turn" it is not to be wondered that he has achieved such a fine success in his chosen field, for it obviously would be difficult for a car "prospect" to escape the blandishments of such a skilful entertainer.

The boys from the Chin Woo Athletic Association scored again, as they did when the Olympics were played here last spring, their exhibitons in costumes being especially pleasing.

TIEH HWA SCHOOL

Perhaps the most interested spectators at the Automobile Show yesterday afternoon were a hundred or more pupils of the Tieh Hwa School for Destitute Chinese Boys and Girls. Conspicuous in trim blue uniforms, the children first made a general survey in marching formation and then broke ranks to study exhibits that appealed to them. They collected all available literature, tried their skill on the Dunlop tyre puzzles, gather in some samples of Palmolive soap, and stopped at the China Press booth while Mr. John Wing Zane turned out some sketches for their special benefit, and finally showed the Chinese tea-room what a real appetite is like.

The Tieh Hwa School is supported by a small group of foreigners in Shanghai and judging from the good manners and interrigent interest exhibited by the pupils yesterday, it is accomplishing a

2 MILLIONS OF CUSTOMS ARE PAID IN TO AID BANKS

Bankers Admit It But The Officials Refuse To Affirm Credits

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Nov. 29.—Apropos of the advance of Customs surplus by Sir Francis Aglen to the Peking Government, vernacular papers here report today that Sir Francis having agreed to deliver Customs surplus, the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation yesterday transferred $2,000,000 to the Bank of China and Bank of Communications and that the balance, it has been decided, will be delivered in two instalments later on.

Diplomatic circles state, however, that they are not in a position to announce as to the truth of the report in question, but the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation asserts positively that it actually transferred $2,000,000 to the Banks of China and Communications at noon yesterday by order of the Inspector General of the Maritime Customs.

REPUBLICANS NOW FEARFUL OF OVERTURN AT ELECTIONS

Mutiny Defeats Hardings Request To Limit Tax Surcharge

REVOLT IN WEST

"Done For" Unless New Session Retrieves Last, They Say

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, Nov. 28.—The close of the first session of the present Congress finds the Republican leaders worried at the mutiny in their ranks, threatening a breakup of the leadership, since 94 Republicans in the House had the temerity to bolt and join the Democrats to defeat President Harding's special request that the surtax on the income tax be limited to 40 percent.

The development of "blocs" and the revolt in the Middle West group of representatives is seriously threatening the success of the party in the coming elections. Republicans are not concealing their fears that they are done for unless the coming session retrieves the poor record of that just ended.

So little constructive work has been done while the country is passing through the worst period of the year, economically and industrially due to the transition from war to peace conditions, that the situation is virtually where Wilson left it, despite great campaign promises by the Republicans. The leaders blame the low caliber of men elected due to many weak ones going in on the Harding landslide.

SPAIN CHARGED WITH CRUELTY TO U.S. FIGHTERS

(Special To The China Press)

London, Nov. 28.—Twenty Americans who joined the Spanish Foreign Legion last summer are still at a Spanish camp at Cueta in Morocco, suffering from dysentery and septic sores, according to members of a party of thirteen Americans and forty-five British who returned yesterday.

C. W. Brown and Chas Stephenson of New York who participated in eleven battles, confirmed the stories of cruel treatment by Spanish officers. The men said they were ill fed and their belongings stolen.

They said they were once sent out to the front with their hands tied behind their backs for trying to obtain medicine.

Misunderstanding of orders, according to the men, caused much of the ill treatment. They asserted there was much ill feeling on account of the Spanish-American War.

THAT SOUTHERN MOVEMENT

WHAT do you know about the heart of the movement which Dr. Sun Yat-sen and General Chen Chiung-ming are leading? Not much, probably. But your lack of information is excusable.

Few, even among the old hands, in China have much understanding of it.

Readers will recall the brilliant series of articles on the Siberian-Japanese situation and on the ping-pong politics of Peking from the pen of Mr. Orrin Keith.

This searching mind is now at work in Southern China for THE CHINA PRESS. Mr. Keith is going all the way through the Southern Constitutionalist movement.

His articles will appear exclusively in THE CHINA PRESS.

Read the first one today on the editorial page.

Five Great War Leaders See American Legion Review

FIVE of the greatest leaders in the World War saw the American veterans march at the American Legion convention in Kansas City. The quintette included General Jacques, of Belgium, who towered physically over the others; General Diaz, of Italy; Marshal Foch, of France; General Pershing and Admiral Beatty, of Great Britain. After the review they attended the unveiling of the Legion Memorial Shaft, one of the many tributes to American soldiers.

WOMEN LOSE NO CHARM IN EDUCATION IS HER DECISION

Dr. Mary Woolley Tells College Club Of Its Responsibilities

Mathematics, grammar, the humanities, and the rest of the modern curriculum of women's colleges have not been subversive in the slightest of womanly charm, declared President Mary S. Woolley, head of Mt. Holyoke College, last night before a meeting of the College Club of Shanghai. On the other hand, Dr. Woolley insisted that not only the charm, but the usefulness of woman has been vastly increased by college education.

One hundred woman college graduates cheered the head of the membership committee, Mrs. H. P. Sailor, when she announced a gain of 29 in the membership roll.

Miss Margaret Bailey Chairman of the International relationships committee reported constructive work in behalf of the Chinese girls who planned to go abroad for study. A vote of thanks was passed to Mrs. A. C. Davis, 3 Darroch Road, who opened her home to the club.

The speaker of the evening, Dr. Woolley, traced the development of educational opportunities for women from 1830 when knowledge and book learning were supposed to be subversive of feminine charm, to the present moment when the demand for specialised vocational women workers is far greater than the supply.

The period of beginnings, Dr. Woolley said was from 1835 to 1875 when Wheaton, Mt. Holyoke, Elmira and Vassar were struggling into being, and when education for women was so much in disfavor that few preachers would jeopardise their professional standing by filling the Mt. Holyoke pulpit since it was considered highly unorthodox to teach women subjects ordinarily taught in men's colleges, and a dangerous institution generally.

Between 1875-1915 colleges like Vassar, Bryn Mawr, Wellesley, Smith, and Mt. Holyoke sprung up and flourished, as did the "sister colleges" Radcliffe, Barnard, and the Woman's College of Brown University.

During the war began the third period, that of vocational responsibility for the college woman, when greater demands than ever before were made upon woman kind. The world claims leadership from educated women. Recognising the danger in untutored and chaotic thinking, it challenges the college woman wisely to direct the tremendous possibilities for power which woman holds today, said Dr. Woolley who closed her address with a quotation from General Smuts: "Humanity has struck its tents and is again on the march. Whither?" adding that the college woman must help determine.

Scottish Clans To Gather At Caledonian Ball Tonight

The call to the clans has been sounded. With kilts and sporans and their piper in the lead, one thousand guests will celebrate the reunion of the Scottish Clans at the Caledonian Ball of St. Andrews Society at the Town Hall tonight.

In the place of the misty and murky highland glens, the clansmen and their ladies will be received on Wednesday night at 9 o'clock in a brilliantly decorated ball room by Mr. Alistair Campbell, the president of the Society and by Mrs. Campbell.

And in the place of the eerie mountain dances and mournful songs, the company will listen to Harry Kerry's jazz orchestra and the Municipal Band. The only reminder of the old fighting days will be the military guard of Sikh troopers who will line the stairways.

The hour of 9:30 has been set for the opening dance, which is announced on the program as, "An Old Time Waltz," and the rest of the evening will be ala "Shanghai fashion."

However no meeting of the clan would be complete without the bags, and for a time Piper McLennan will compete for honors with the modern syncopation.

The hall has been decorated with a specially arranged electric display, with a large St. Andrew's cross flashing in the center of the ceiling. The lighting effects have been arranged for the ball by Donald McColl.

ARBUCKLE TRIAL NOW NEARS END; HE DENIES GUILT

(Special To The China Press)

San Francisco, Nov. 29.—The trial of Roscoe Arbuckle, the film comedian, charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Virginia Rappe, is nearing its end. The defense announced that they would close their case on Wednesday.

HE DENIES ALL GUILT

(Reuter's Service)

San Francisco, Nov. 28.—Arbuckle's evidence is chiefly noteworthy for the total absence of any admission of misbehaviour on his part. He declared that he found Miss Rappe in his rooms, helped her to bed and gave her some water, but denied that he applied any ice.

Sinim Lodge Has Installed Officers

New officers of the Sinim Lodge of the A. F. and A. M. Massachussetts Constitution were installed last night, Dr. C. S. Lincoln, Deputy District Grand Master officiating.

The new officers are: Master, James S. Dolan; Senior Warden, A. G. Adamson, Junior Warden, Dr. F. Rawlinson; Secretary, A. C. Davis; Treasurer, V. E. CHINA HAS NEW DEMANDS TO OFFER

Submarine Question Looms Larger Due To Hint Of Clash—Hughes Irate Over Criticism Of Aims Of The British Delegation

BY FREDERICK WILLIAM WILE

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger— China Press Exclusive Service)

Washington, November 28.—The first fortnight of the Disarmament Conference ends with a record of amazing progress toward universal confidence and definite results along all the lines already taken up now are deemed assured. The horizon contains several clouds, the size of a man's hand, but that any of these will develop into a typhoon, nobody for a moment considers possible.

Perhaps the most disquieting disturbance of the heretoforce calm atmosphere is the one wherefore Lord Curzon is responsible. His onslaught upon France unmistakeably has estranged Anglo-French relations in the Conference. So that it now appears certain that the Far Eastern discussions dealing with the internal reorganisation of China will find France and Britain aligned upon opposite sides instead of working as a unit for the benefit of China.

Curzon's outburst strikes Washington officials as an example of that sort of diplomacy least likely to promote harmony. London is understood to have queried its delegation as to strength of French support for the American attitude on submarines. It is probable that this support has been noteably strengthened by Curzon's speech, it is said in well informed American circles.

JAPAN MAY AGREE

(Trans-Pacific Public Ledger—China Press Exclusive Service).

Washington, Nov. 28.—Today's meeting of the naval experts is expected to solve a number of the difficulties of the conference and bring agreement closer. The indications this morning are that Japan is inclined to accept the sixty percent plan after hearing from Tokio and discussing the American reports. It is possible, the experts say, that Japan may be allowed to retain the Mutsu, America the Colorado and England build one Jutland type ship.

Curzon's speech has created such a sensation in Washington that it still is temporarily supplanting the conference issues, as it is feared it will widen the breach opened by the statements of Balfour at the opening session, coming as it does on the heels of the shock of France's demands for a big submarine fleet.

The British here declare the latter can never be permitted since it can be construed only as a war move against Britain. Their expectations of hostility at the conference between America and Japan were wrong as the relations have been very cordial. The only bitterness now shown is apparently all French and British.

Official spokesmen for America admit that the land armament issues are dead though there may be a possible curtailment of the use of airplanes and gas.

The French insist that submarines cannot in any circumstances be abolished by a power such as France so manifestly weaker at sea than Britain, America and Japan even under the new allotments laid down by Secretary Hughes. All the interested parties except Japan have accepted the "five-five-three" quota, and the Japanese contentions are undergoing incessant scrutiny by naval experts.

Secretary Hughes is furious over the campaign now being waged in the United States to discredit the British delegation's sincerity of purpose. The Secretary, in a formal statement, brands this campaign as lacking in gravity and insists that America and all the powers, Britain especially, are working in concord along the lines laid down by the Conference.

TO ABANDON POSTS

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Nov. 28.—The representatives of the Nine Powers, sitting as a committee on Pacific and Far Eastern questions, have adopted the resolution in favor of the relinquishment of foreign post office privileges in China.

All the Powers agreed on January 1, 1923, as the date of relinquishment except Japan, whose

Germany May Get 2 Year Respite

(Reuter's Service)

LONDON, Nov. 29.—It is learned that the proposal to institute a two-year moratorium in regard to Germany's debts to the Allies forms the subject of a strong memorandum from the British representative on the Reparations Commission, who urges the importance of Germany being given a breathing space for the consolidation of her finances.

The French attitude is still to consider the January and February payments possible, but the position afterwards is most doubtful.

representatives asked for time to hear from their Government.

Owing to the Chinese allegations that opium had been sent to China through foreign postal systems, thus violating the anti-opium law, the resolution includes a provision, permitting the Chinese Customs to examine postal matter, passing through the foreign agencies, for the detection of dutiable or contraband goods. The resolution as adopted provides for the abandonment of the foreign post-offices on a date to be agreed upon later, provided the Chinese Government maintains an efficient postal service.

U. S. STANDS PAT

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Nov. 28.—American naval experts have given the British and Japanese naval experts detailed answers to the questions raised last week regarding the naval reductions program. It is understood that questions, the nature of which is not disclosed, were raised by the Japanese.

It is stated authoritatively that examination by American experts revealed no mistakes in the American figures, and Mr. Hughes's estimate of the present naval strength of the Powers is unchanged.

The Far-Eastern Committee have deferred until tomorrow final action regarding extra-territorial rights in China. It is understood the principle of closing foreign Courts in China has been agreed upon, but that the consideration of the formal resolution has been deferred, together with the question of domestic control of Chinese railways, which was brought up by the Chinese representatives.

FEVERISH ATMOSPHERE

(French Wireless through Reuter)

Paris, Nov. 28.—The telegrams from Washington, published in the Sunday papers state that the recent statement by President Harding regarding the possibility of convoking further conferences and not excluding the idea of inviting other Nations, including Germany, to send delegates to Washington, has contributed to create a somewhat feverish atmosphere.

The Conference for the last four or five days has been exciting impatience, because the time has come when the delegates of the Great Powers, having closed the debate on principle, find themselves obliged before going farther to consult their Governments and their Parliaments.

M. Briand is returning to France to get into touch with French opinion. The telegraph is functioning day and night between Washington and Tokio. Admiral Earl Beatty has left for London to confer with Mr. Lloyd George.

The London Daily Chronicle learns that unofficial discussions have taken place during the last few days between the Japanese, British and American delegates concerning the abrocation of the Anglo-Japanese Treaty. Nothing definite has been decided but Japan is said to be showing herself inclined to accept the transformation of the treaty into an Agreement.

Telegrams from Washington note that a certain curiosity, mingled with anxiety, is being shown in Chinese, Japanese and even American circles as to the attitude which Japan will adopt on the naval problems and those of the Far East.

On the subject of the creation of the Crown Prince Hirohito as Regent of Japan, comment confines itself to the statement that the Prince is very well-informed on the international political situation and that he has very broad-minded views on the subject of the various problems.

Prince Hirohito's recent visit to Europe enabled him to come into contact with the liberal ideas of the present time and it is thought that the modern ideas of the Prince will incline Japan to make all concessions compatible with her dignity and will thus contribute to the success of the Conference.

The Conference will probably not last beyond Christmas.

MAY ADJOURN

(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Nov. 26. (delayed).—The belief is gaining ground that the Conference might adjourn during the first two weeks in December to enable delegates to go home for Christmas.

During the interval committees and subcommittees will prepare resolutions for submission to the Conference when it reconvenes.

JAPAN TO YIELD

(Reuter's Special Service)

Washington, Nov. 28.—It is positively stated in some quarters that after her determined effort to secure a seventy percent capital ship strength Japan is now disposed to accept the original estimate. Until the official announcement to this effect is made however it would be unwise to build hopes upon it, but little surprise would be felt if Japan were speedily to come into line with the American program.

POSTAL PLAN TEXT

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Nov. 28.—The following is the text of the Far Eastern Committee's resolution:

"Recognising the justice of the desire expressed by the Chinese Government to secure the abolition of foreign postal agencies in China, save or except in leased territories or otherwise specifically provided by treaty, it is resolved:

(1): that the four Powers having such postal agencies shall agree to their abandonment, subject to the following conditions: (a) that an efficient Chinese postal service be maintained: (b) that an assurance be given by the Chinese Government that they contemplate no change in the present postal administration as far as the status of the foreign Co-Director-General is concerned:

(2): to enable China and the Powers concerned to make the necessary dispositions, this arrangement shall come into force not later than .... (date blank).

Pending the complete withdrawal of the foreign postal agencies, the four Powers concerned shall severally undertake to afford full facilities to the Chinese Customs authorities to examine all postal matter (excepting ordinary letters whether registered or not, which, upon external examination, shall appear to contain written matter) passing through, with a view to ascertaining whether they contain articles dutiable, contraband or otherwise contravening the Customs regulations and the laws of China."

JAPAN CONCEDES POSTS

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, Nov. 28.—That Japan will not hesitate to withdraw her post-offices from China which have entirely no political significance, provided China guarantees satisfactory communication service, is the opinion of the Government, according to several of this morning's papers. The papers declare that Japan is determined to act most sympathetically towards China and to render all assistance possible to China's recovery of her rights and interests.

MAY ANNUL 21 DEMANDS

(Special To The China Press)

Washington, Nov. 26 (delayed).—Some of the members of the Diplomats Advisory Council in Tokio favor annulling the Twenty-One Demands on China and negotiating for a new treaty whereby Japan would be permitted to extend the lease on the South Manchuria Railway, according to information received by prominent Japanese here.

GERMANS WAKE QUERIES

(Reuter's Service)

London, Nov. 29.—There is much speculation over the arrival of Dr. Walter Rathenau and Dr. von Simons, formerly German Ministers of Reconstruction and Foreign Affairs, respectively.

Both are intimately associated with the question of reparations and their arrival is generally connected with the problems of the next reparations payments, due in January and February, which experts say can only be assured by a foreign loan or the alienation of German State property, including railways.

Their arrival is also connected with the recent mysterious visit of Herr Hugo Stinnes, in which connection there is no reliable information except that it concerned German finance.

BRIAND IS ABSOLVED

Washington, Nov. 28.—Another of these rumors, which have been threatening the harmony of the Conference, was scotched today by Mr. Hughes officially denying the reports that M. Briand had referred disparagingly to the Italian army, which produced inter alia the incident at Turin.

SHANTUNG NOW IMPENDS

Washington, Nov. 28.—Dr. Koo stated today that, when the question of railways was discussed, China wished to bring up several other matters, including that of Shantung.

CHINA'S NEW DEMANDS

Washington, Nov. 29.—An official communique states that the Chinese Delegation has sent a statement to the Far Eastern Committee demanding the removal of various establishments placed in China by foreign Powers, without a treaty, including foreign troops, police and telegraph and wireless stations.

The Committee has decided to discuss the statement at its next meeting and meanwhile has appointed a special Drafting Committee.

BRIAND WON'T TALK

(Special To The China Press)

New York, Nov. 27.—Premier Briand, just before sailing for France, today disclaimed any wish to reply to Lord Curzon.

"This is no time for arguments between friends and Allies," said the French Premier.

RECORDS FALL AT ALL-JAPAN TRACK AND FIELD MEET

Entrants Show Better Class Than At Shanghai Olympics

Tokio, Nov. 23.—Three hundred and forty-two athletes from all parts of Japan participated in the annual All-Japan track and field meet at the Agriculture College grounds at Shibuya Saturday and Sunday. A number of records were broken while in other events the showing was not as good as was expected. Considering everything, however, the ability displayed showed a remarkable improvement in the form of the track and field men since the Far Eastern meet in Shanghai last spring. Twenty thousand persons saw the meet.

The 200-meter event was the most exciting of the meet, six men entering for the four places. Kage of Meiji University won from the field by a narrow margin, doing the distance in 23 3-5 seconds, lowering the records two-fifths of a second. Takamagi, an 18-year-old entry of the Gosei Middle School won the 100-meter dash lowering the record one-fifth of a second. His time was 11 1-5 seconds.

VANDERLIP SAYS LET EUROPE PAY DEBTS SLOWLY

(Reuter's Service)

New York, Nov. 28.—Mr. Frank A. Vanderlip, the prominent banker, has returned from his tour of Europe.

Addressing the Economic Club he urged that the United States should devise an easy-payment system for the Allies debts and employ the repayments for the rehabilitation of Europe, thus accomplishing great good instead of the harm, which would result to America and Europe alike, if the former insisted to the letter on the repayment of European obligations.

THE FIFTH WISE MAN

"I'll wait a while before buying my life insurance," said the first wise man. He had to pay 15 per cent more because the cost had increased.

"Next year will be just as good," said the second wise man. He died six months later.

"I'm in no hurry—I can get insurance any time," said the third wise man. He discovered his error later, when the doctor told him he was uninsurable.

"I'll have more money for insurance in a couple of years," said the fourth wise man. But a reckless chauffeur ran over him, and the day when he can buy insurance has passed.

Now there was a FIFTH man and he bought his Life Insurance from the Asia Life Insurance Company when he had the chance. He isn't worrying any. Neither is his family.

DENIES C.E.R. WILL BUY RAIL STOCK

Col. J. F. Stevens Says C.E.R. Contemplates No Purchases From Ussuri Road

Tokio, Oct. 22.—The dispatch from Peking printed in newspapers here yesterday to the effect that the Chita Government has decided to lodge a strong protest against a contract between the C. E. R. and the Vladivostok Government for the purchase of rolling stock by the Chinese Eastern from the Ussuri Railway is declared to be wrong by Colonel John F. Stevens, chairman of the Inter-Allied Technical Board of the C. E. R.

Colonel Stevens is now in Yokohama and will leave for America today in response to a summons from Washington for him to attend the Conference. Asked about the report of a contract for the purchase of rolling stock, he said yesterday that the Chinese Eastern was not contemplating the purchase of rolling stock or anything else from the Ussuri Railway. He added that the Chinese Eastern Railway is now loaning the Ussuri Railway more than 30 big engines and is running its own through trains from Manchuli Station to Vladivostok, the last section of the run being over the Ussuri line.

REPORT UNTRUE

"I don't know where the report came from," he said, "but it is utterly untrue. We have nothing to sell to and want to purchase nothing from the Ussuri Railway."

Colonel Stevens said that the Chinese Eastern was in good shape now and running good trains, both passenger and freight. They had received many compliments, he said, on their passenger service which includes fast trains and good sleeping and dining accommodations. There has not been heavy freight carrying during the last month, he said, because the old crops are mostly all moved, and the new crops have not yet started. The port of Dairen is getting more of the freight from the region of the railway than Vladivostok because of the slightly lower railway freight rates to the southern port and of the more frequent calls of steamers, but he said that some fine records of loading ships had been made at Vladivostok recently. Eight thousand tons had been loaded in 34 or 35 hours.

Asked concerning the report that trains are running regularly between Chita and European Russia, he said that he did not know whether this were true or not. He rather doubted it and spoke in slightly uncomplimentary terms of the management of the section of the Chinese Eastern between Manchuli Station and Chita, which is in the hands of the Chita officials.

Chinese Day Success At Motor Show

thoroughly worth while piece of work.

One feature of last night's entertainments that was extremely pleasing to the show management was the very large number of Chinese women who attended, and even more pleasing was the interest they seemed to take in the various exhibits.

THRONG HONIGSBERGS

In the Honigsberg and Central Garage booths there are skeleton chassis, and these were surrounded all evening by large numbers of Chinese, all of whom apparently were anxious to see how an automobile works. Chinese salesmen spared no pains to make everything clear to them. The Chinese women, however, were more keenly interested in the closed cars, and specially in the upholstering and fitments, showing the same discernment in these matters as foreign women.

Now that the Chinese have started to attend the show it is hoped by the management that they will continue to do so. The exhibition was arranged primarily for the benefit of the Chinese people in Shanghai, and everything is being done at the big display rooms in Verdun gardens to make the show attractive to them.

At a special meeting of the Show Executive committee at the show grounds last night it was decided to extend a special invitation to the members of the Chinese General Chamber of Commerce to attend the automobile show, and also to invite the heads of the various educational institutions in and about Shanghai to send their students to the exhibition.

Every effort is being made to induce Chinese to attend the show in greater numbers, as the members of the committee feel that the value of the exhibition will be lost unless the Chinese are induced to visit the show before it closes.

Scout Topics

NEW CAMP OPENING

Pending the convenience of Sir Everard Fraser, K.C.M.G., Saturday, December 10, next at 3 p.m. has been provisionally decided upon for the official opening of the B-P Boy Scout Camp near the junction of Avenue Haig and Edinburgh Road. This site has been obtained on rent resulting on the proceeds of the Jamboree held at the Shanghai Public School for Boys early in June last. S/m. A. A. G. Toone of the Cathedral School Troop is the Camp Quartermaster and during the past few months has been a busy man, having the ground straightened out, drained and generally got into condition for the present season. Before very long we hope to have scouts from at least one troop in camp each week-end. Scoutmasters in charge of troops are reminded of the notice to be given to the Camp Quartermaster when they intend camping out.

FIELD DAY

At the last Officer's Meeting, held on Nov. 4, it was decided to carry out the scheme drawn up by S/m. Luker "Red Indians and Fort St. George." This scheme has up to now been unfortunately postponed for one reason and another but it has been decided to get on with the good work on Saturday, December 17. The idea is briefly as follows:

The Settlers of Fort St. George, represented by the Thos. Hanbury and French School Troops, to act as defenders with S/m. Luker in charge. The Public School and Cathedral School Troops representing Red Indians in command of S/m. Toone to be the attackers.

Fall in at corner of Avenue Joffre and Route Say Zoong at 2:30 p.m. sharp. Attack commences at 3 p.m. Cease fire at 4:30 p.m. Dismises at 5 p.m. Results to be declared at 4:45 p.m.

General scheme is that the Indians with neckerchiefs tucked under the belt at back are to endeavor to enter Fort St. George. Defenders are to shoot the enemy by removing the neckerchiefs. Defenders entering the boundaries will be considered suffering from the effects of poisoned arrows and hors de combat.

Neckerchiefs (scout scarves) to be tucked under the belt and not tied on in any way. S/m. Toone to see that all scarves are in the correct position. Scarves handed in to the Umpires after 4.45 p.m. will not count for marks.

MARKS

Marks will be allotted as follows: 20 marks for each neckerchief captured by the defenders of Fort St. George and 10 marks to the attackers for each Indian succeeding in reaching the boundaries of the Fort without losing their neckerchieves.

Fort boundaries will be clearly marked by four flags.

JAMBOREE

At the last meeting it was decided to have the following events for the next Jamboree early in May next year.

1. Cooking. — Irish Stew. Limit of quantity 1 lb. of meat and vegetables in proportion thereto.

2. Kim's Game.—50 objects with a 3 minute view. 3 boys from each troop to compete. Marks allotted on the average. Total correct added and divided by 3.

3. Signalling.—Morse flags. One boy from each troop sending.

4. Relay Race.—Verbal messages in relays—as for previous competition.

5. Ambulance.—The scheme for this competition will be published at a later date.

6. Displays.—Scoutmasters are to arrange their own display.

TELEPHONE SERVICE

S-ms. of troops are requested to send in to the undersigned as soon as possible a list giving the names and ages of volunteers (elder boys preferred) for telephone duty in accordance with the mobilisation scheme.

BADGE CERTIFICATES

Scoutmasters are requested to note that these are not authorised, and badges cannot be issued, unless signed by the Assistant District Commissioner—Mr. F. C. Millington.

OFFICER'S MEETING

All scout officers are reminded of the meeting to be held at the Church House on Friday, December 2, at 5:15 p.m.

Two Illiterate Coolies Given Worship As Gods

(China Press Correspondence)

KAYING, Nov. 16.—Not far distant from here in the southern section of Kiangsi Province they worship living men. Two men sit on thrones under the trees and thousands of people come from many distant places to adore them.

Some 20 years ago a man named Liau started a new religious sect which has as its object the worship of "space." The movement assumed such large proportions that the authorities felt called upon to suppress it. They accordingly put the leader to death.

However, the present disciples, Lin and Lai, later revived the movement, and today they may be found at a place called Vongtshia busily engaged in being worshiped by followers. They sleep out of doors under the trees and rarely leave their thrones. There have been many beautiful temples erected in the neighborhood, and others are said to have been erected in Siam and Shanghai.

Among other things people say that these Gods possess the power to heal. Missionaries of the Christian church report that cases of successful cures have come to their notice. Over five thousand adherents have been known to worship before these Gods at one time.

These men have no education. They were formerly coolies and are still illiterate.

Gambling Greatest Menace, Declares Bishop Wakeford

Bishop Of Guilford Declared "Crumbling Of Public Morals, Unless Arrested, Means Death Knell Of Nation"

London, Oct. 15.—The Right Rev. Dr. Wakeford, Bishop of Birmingham, who claims to be broadminded on the question of gambling, insists that the church should tackle the whole question in a firm but wise manner. He says it is today the greatest menace to British society.

Gambling has increased in England since the war to a remarkable extent, Bishop Wakeford, addressing the Church Congress, said that many women are paying for their dresses and "frivolities" by gambling. He pictured numbers of women passing most of the day at the telephone laying bets with bookmakers or having a "flutter" on the Stock Exchange.

To show his broad-mindedness, Dr. Wakeford said he backed a favorite when he was seventeen years old, and he added:

"I am still prepared to forgive an owner of race horses who, in a moderate way, backs the chances of a beautiful animal he has trained and in which he takes pride."

The present session of the Church Congress has been marked by frank discussion on modern tendencies here. The Rev. Dr. E. D. Turner said:

"Mothers and daughters must realise that a millionaire with a lurid past is not a fitting mate for a young girl. Far better is a healthy boy with his way to make in the world."

Dr. Turner also made the sensational declaration that the "improvement in the morals of young men noted during the last forty years has been practically wiped out, and the standard of practical morality among women has steadily deteriorated."

The Bishop of Guilford asserted that "the crumbling of public morals, unless arrested, means the death knell of the nation."

SPEAKING OF FISH YARNS— WHAT OF THIS?

The Shanghai College community crowded the banks of the pond opposite the Academy Building last Saturday afternoon to watch the spectacle of men catching big fish with their hands, without nets or fishing tackle.

Ever since the preparations to fill in the pond began the college community has speculated about the number and size of the fish in the pond. The pond was never stocked with fish, but the tide brought in many small fish before the pond became isolated. It was difficult, therefore, to estimate the quantity of fish in the pond now. It was believed, however, that the quantity was large enough to make some effort to salvage them worth while. The rights to the fish were offered to the highest bidder, and one of the college cooks offered $300. His offer was accepted and he immediately hired a crew of men and three water wheels, such as the Chinese farmers use to pump the water from the canals into their rice fields, to pump the water out of the pond. The men divided into three shifts kept the water wheels going day and night until the water was too shallow for the wheels to work effectively. Then several mud dams were built to divide the bottom of the pond into several separate pools, and the men began with shovel like scoops made of woven bamboo baskets tied onto poles, to bail the water out of one pool at a time.

The bottom of the first pool was reached Saturday afternoon. Then the real excitement began. As the steady dipping of the scoops lessened the water in the pool it became evident that plenty of fish were present. They could be seen swimming back and forth in an effort to get away, and the fins of the larger ones were visible above the surface of the water.

As soon as the water was low enough the men waded in. A few had small hand nets but other worked without any tackle except their own hands. The fish struggled to evade their captors, but they had little chance in the shallow water, so crowded with their kind.

A shout went up from the crowd of spectators on the bank, when the first big fish was pulled out. No one had thought that the pond harbored fish of such a size. It was over three feet long.

Many of the fish taken out that first afternoon measured over three feet and some over four feet in length. The big tank prepared to receive them was soon full of fine, large fish. When they were weighed it was found that the largest one weighed 62 pounds. When all of the pools had finally been emptied the record showed 3,500 pounds of fish taken, not counting the small quantities which there had been no opportunity to weigh.

Palermo Cafe Case Is Up For Hearing

Suit to recover a deposit of $3.000 alleged to have been made to guarantee rental payments for the once notorious Cafe Palermo, one of the resorts that flourished in the days of 'The Trenches' was called for hearing yesterday in the British Supreme Court before Judge Peter Grain and was continued until December 15.

In the action one Goldman is suing C. S. Maitland. The plaintiff contends that after he had taken over the Palermo and paid the deposit to guarantee rental payments the Palermo along with all the other resorts of the district had to close. He is therefore seeking the return of the deposit. The defendant contends that the contract was of a nature not countenanced by British law, as by its terms the Palermo was to be used for immoral purposes.

Mr. P. W. Goldring represents the plaintiff and Mr. L. K. Kentwell is appearing for the defendant.

Am'n Football XI To Play U.S.S. Tracy Team Sunday

Regular Eleven To Practice On Cricket Field 7 a.m. Daily

The regular eleven of the Shanghai American Football Club will meet a strong team off the United States Ship Tracy Sunday commencing at 3 p.m., and the prospects now for the game are that the Shanghai players will be given weekly matches for both the lightweight team and the bigger eleven.

Announcement made last night by Herb Gallop who is handling the bookings for the local club was more than optimistic for the balance of the football season, which is now expected to run until after the New Year.

Both Shanghai elevens will be kept in constant training. The Lightweights will in all probability play once a week against either a light Navy team, or the American school, while the regulars will play either the Tracy men who are already out at practice; or an eleven off the Naval yacht Isabel, which is expected soon to have leisure time for the game.

The holiday games at Christmas and New Year most likely will be played between the 15th Infantry eleven from Tientsin which defeated the Peking Marines on their home grounds on Thanksgiving day, the Shanghai regulars, and the Tracy, with a possibility of the Isabel men coming out to make a fourth corner.

Shanghai has changed its time of practice from after dinner to before breakfast, and the place from the Drill Hall to the Cricket Club grounds. The club is drilling every morning now at 7 a.m., and they are drilling a larger number of candidates than when they trained at night. Several heavy stars of other years, including Rodger, Marsden and Hirsch are reporting regularly for the morning workouts so that the big eleven is already assured even though other prospective players do not show as expected. The team has not yet been selected, however, so that any candidate wishing to play may qualify by reporting any morning at 7 o'clock on the cricket field.

Youngest Football Coach In America

John Perry.

He's thought to be the youngest, even if he doesn't look it. John Pery, at the age of twenty-five, is head coach of football at the San Djego, California, high school. He has about 200 men in his squads. His first squad has not lost a game this year.

British Women's Association Notes

GENERAL

Sewing parties for the Christmas Fair are now in full swing at Headquarters and are held on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 9:30 to midday. Tea and biscuits are served during the morning. Members are asked to bring their own scissors, thimbles and any colored sewing silks or cottons they may have. Scraps and pieces of any sort of material are acceptable and "notions" for saleable articles are much welcomed. Dolls for dressing are in great request.

GARDENING SECTION

Lectures and demonstrations in connection with this Section have been suspended for the winter season. A meeting in connection with the Christmas Fair will be held on Friday, December 2, at 4 p.m. at 6 Love Lane.

LITERARY SECTION

A meeting of this Section will be held at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday Dec. 6, at 9 Kiukiang Road, when Miss Hyland will read a paper on "Joseph Conrad."

A copy of Mr. Mennie's "Pageant of Peking" has been presented to this Section for its bookstall at the Christmas Fair. It is proposed to raffle this beautiful work, and as no one who contemplates retiring from this country can possibly afford to do so and not take with them this magnificant souvenir of the capital, the opportunity of securing it for a dollar should certainly not be missed. Tickets for this raffle may be obtained now from Mrs. Maguire, Hon. Secretary to the Section, 413 Avenue Joffre. Members are reminded that the "bookstall" is not yet fully stocked and that anything that might be sold in a stationer's shop is suitable for it.

MUSICAL SECTION

Last week's meeting, when Mrs. Ryton presented her most interesting paper on Elgar, illustrated by songs of the great English composer charmingly rendered by Mesdames Bowey and Mills, was a great success and drew a big audience. Mrs. Sykes' long promised "Chopin Recital" is to take place at Headquarters on Friday, December 2, at 5:15 p.m. punctually. The Section will be "At home" to members of the B. W. A. and their friends on payment of $1 admission. In view of the expenses connected with acquiring music, hire of piano, and the prospect of purchasing a piano later on, a small charge for non-members of the Section and their friends will be made from time to time and it is much hoped that this will in no way detract from the support to which these delightful meetings are surely entitled.

SPORTS SECTION

Members of the Sports Section are reminded that the Badminton season opens on Saturday, December 3, in the hall of the Public School for Girls, 28 Boone Road, at 2:30 p.m. Racquets and shuttlecocks are provided. Members wishing to play are requested to wear rubber soled shoes. The subscription, $3 for the season, is payable in advance to the Hon. Treasurer, Mrs. Bichard, 8 Carter Road or care of the Secretary at Headquarters.

OTHER SECTIONS

Dramatic and Needlecraft Sections are in course of formation. Members interested and wishing to join these—or any other—sections are asked to send in their names at once to the Secretary at Headquarters. Secretaries of sections wish to remind members that the only way to ensure delivery of letters, notices, circulars, etc., is to notify any change of address in writing both to Headquarters and to the respective sections.

Ferrier Retains Golf Title By Beating Dewar

J. B. Ferrier retained his championship title Sunday when he again won the Shanghai Golf Club tourney at Kiangwan in an interesting match with Captain J. Dewar by a score of 11 up and 10 to play. Ferrier played almost faultless golf. Ferrier was four up on the morning play and won seven of the eight holes of the afternoon making four of the eight better than bogey and two of the remaining four in bogey.

Ferrier outdrove his opponent consistently but both players kept clear of trouble and put but one ball out of bounds apiece. A bad wind bothered but both men drove well along the fairway, all but two drives going straight.

The summary of the match follows:

Bogey	5	5	4	4	5	3	4	4	3	—37
Ferrier	5	6	4	4	5	3	5	5	3	—40
Dewar	5	7	4	5	6	4	5	6	3	—45
HOME
Bogey	4	3	4	5	6	3	6	3	5	—38
Ferrier	5	3	4	5	6	4	5	4	5	—41
Dewar	4	3	6	5	6	3	5	3	6	—41

AFTERNOON, OUT

Bogey	5	5	4	4	5	3	4	4	—34
Ferrier	4	4	3	4	6	4	2	4	—32
Dewar	5	5	4	5	6	5	4	5	—39

Seek To Kill Boxing Game In Philippines

Manila, Nov. 24.—Senator Fonacier has introduced a bill in the Philippine senate striking out of the statutes the present boxing law and prohibiting boxing bouts in the islands.

Senator Fonacier, in introducing the bill, said that he had visited the Olympic Stadium, where the big bouts in Manila are held, and found that betting and other disagreeable practices were prevalent. His solution is to abolish boxing entirely.

It is not expected that the bill will be passed by both the senate and the house.

International Rifle Shoot Is Set For Dec. 17

The International Rifle contest will be shot under the auspices of the Shanghai Rifle Association on Saturday, December 17 at 1:30 p.m. according to announcement made yesterday by Mr. A. M. Collaco, secretary of the association.

Under the rules of the competition only one team may enter from each country, the teams to be composed of three marksman. Any military rifle is permitted. One sighting and ten scoring shots will be allowed at each distance at Bisley targets at 200 and 300 yards. Teams will provide their own ammunition.

A prize will be presented to each member of the winning team and a high gun prize to the highest individual aggregate scorer in the match.

Entries, with an entrance fee of $6 for each team, will be received by the secretary, Mr. A. M. Collaco, care the Russo-Asiatic Bank, not later than 5 p.m. on December 14.

Returned Chinese To Hold Meeting

Asia Banking Corporation

November 29, 1921

Spot bar silver was up 3-8d. and forward ½d. in London yesterday.

The New York price advanced to 67¾ cents and the London-New York cross rate declined to 398½.

The official rates here today were unchanged from yesterday, and the market was steady to firm throughout the day.

Business in Sterling was done at 3/10⅛ for November, at between 3/9⅜ and 3/9½ for December, and between 3/8½ and 3/8⅝ for January.

Gold Dollars were done at 76¾ for November and 75¾ for December.

Forward rates were slightly stronger today than they have been for some time, and a fair amount of Sterling business was done for June at 3/6¾.

There were a few Franc and Gold Dollar bills offered today against silk shipments, and the market throughout the day had a steady undertone.

Advices from London and New York quote the silver markets there as being firm.

New York advises that the silver supplies there at present are very limited, and London states that both America and India bought in their market yesterday.

The undertone of the silver market at present therefore appears to be steady.

Obituary

F. J. AWDRY

The last rites were held yesterday for Mr. F. J. Awdry who was a member of the editorial staff of the Shanghai Sunday Times and who succumbed to an attack of small pox at the Isolation Hospital on Sunday after an illness of a little more than a week.

Mr. Awdry was a newcomer to Shanghai, having arrived here about the middle of October from America where he had been engaged in newspaper work. He was born in Wellington, New Zealand and began his career as a news writer on the staff of The Dominion. Through the war he served with the Australian forces, leaving the service with the rank of lieutenant of infantry. He was 26 years old.

He had intended to proceed back to Wellington, but interrupted his journey to see something of China when he accepted an appointment to engage in newspaper work here.

The funeral took place at the Bubbling Well Cemetery yesterday afternoon, the service being conducted by the Rev. C. E. Spencer.

ASSOCIATION TO MEET

The All China People's Diplomatic Association will hold its third meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the building of the World's Chinese Students Federation. Many important questions are to be discussed.

Vitafer
The All-British Tonic Food

"VITAFER" the most tried and tested of all British TONIC FOODS. Vitafer is specially suitable at this season of the year as a general tonic and pick-me-up, following such a distressing summer as Shanghai has just experienced. The general result of which is that a great number of people are run down in Health, Nervy, Irritable, Physically and Mentally exhausted.

A Tonic food such as Vitafer is the finest Doctor obtainable at this present time.

VITAFER as a source of Protein is strongly recommended in preference to any meat preparation, to those with weak digestive systems a course of this tonic food will build up so that a speedy improvement in appetite, weight, and general well being follows. Simultaneously with this rapid body nutrition glycerophosphates are nourishing and rebuilding the nerve forces overcoming depression and lassitude which are consequent on a run-down neglected condition of health. It will also greatly benefit those who suffer from Neuritis, Anaemia, Dispepsia, Brain Fag and Kindred Complaints.

Suitable alike for children and adults, in 8 oz. sealed bottles. Price $6.00 per dozen, cash with order.

HUMAN HAIR

The eternal feminine demand for adornment is the basis of this remarkable industry.

Shanghai, Canton and Chungking are the great human hair centers of China, which annually export 3,000,000 lbs. of hair.

The manufacture of hairnets is of recent origin and is confined chiefly to Shantung. Nets to the value of G. $4,000,000 left there via Chefoo last year.

80 per cent. of China's hairnets go to America where the consumption is steadily increasing.

'Charlot' Just Missed The Cross Of Legion Of Honor

"You Really Ought To Do Something Officially For Chaplin," Ambassador Herrick Telephoned To French Minister Of Fine Arts

Paris, Oct. 15.—A Minister's fear of what some people or some papers would say robbed Charlie Chaplin of the Legion of Honor when the film star was in Paris.

It was on the evening of a great show at the Trocadero that "Charlot," as he is called here, presided over the introduction of his masterpiece "The Kid" to the Parisian public in aid of the fund for the children of the devastated regions and he was receiving frantic ovations from the huge audience.

Ambassador Herrick was present and, carried away by the wave of enthusiasm, telephoned to Leon Berard, the Minister of Fine Arts, who was dining at the Interallied Club with friends.

"You really ought to do something officially for Chaplin," said Mr. Herrick.

The Minister returned to his interrupted dinner somewhat disturbed. He confided his dilemma to his friends.

"'Charlot' is a funny little cuss," he exclaimed in the French equivalent for the expression, "and I'd like to give him the Legion of Honor. But if I do there'll be a row in papers like the Action Francaise and they'll ask what 'Charlot' did in the war."

A few minutes later M. Berard found a solution.

"I'll make him an Officer of Public Instruction. Just the thing," he cried, and forthwith borrowed a piece of violet ribbon and hurried to the Trocadero with the decoration wrapped in tissue paper. It was not easy, however, to confer the order on Chaplin publicly, and eventually it was in the corridor behind the box that the Minister, in the presence of a few of the film hero's companions, brought out his paper parcel and pinned the ribbon on "Charlot's" buttonhole.

FAST AIR MAILS

Mails will be shot across the Atlantic in a few hours when French inventors have perfected their devices for controlling aeroplanes by wireless.

That is the prophecy of men like Brequet, an airplane constructor, who insists that the pilotless plane is already sufficiently developed to warrant the assertion. Experiments are proceeding with small machines capable of tremendous speed and equipped with apparatus that makes their control possible by wireless.

One inventor has succeeded in maintaining absolute control of a machine of this sort and in directing its course from the ground for a distance of more than 100 miles. His name is Detables. Although he agrees that it will be very convenient to send a letter from Paris to New York and get a written reply the same day the invention has another and terrifying aspect. In future wars it will be possible to pour tons of explosives on enemy towns from the safe distance of 100 miles.

FRENCH COOKING

Comfortably tucked away between the Alps and the Jura Mountains there is a land of undulating plain, wooded hills and singing trout streams which has suddenly jumped from semi-oblivion onto the front page of the Paris press. The reason of this revival of national interest in that particular corner of the country must be sought in the shock which every Frenchman felt a little while ago when some one started out to prove that French cooking, reputed to be the best in the world, was deteriorating. Other writers opened their inkpots or uncovered their typewriters, and soon Paris newspapers were black with a violent controversy over the question. The general opinion seems to be that the reputation earned by French cooking, and of which the French are so jealous, is indeed in danger as a result largely of the hustling habits of the present generation, which has little time to spare for the finesse of the table.

The note of alarm, however, has had the effect of starting a campaign in favor of the declining culinary art. Pilgrimages and "tasting tours" have been organised to many corners of France where modern slap-dash methods have not yet spoiled local kitchen traditions. The idea is to seek inspiration at the shrines of the ancient art, so to speak, with a view to reviving the traditions throughout the country.

Bugey, in the Department of the Aisne, the land previously referred to, is the Mecca of gourmets Brillat-Savarin, whose name is always invoked when any subject connected with cuisine is discussed, typified the local passion for culinary perfection nearly a hundred years ago. He wrote a book on the "Physiology of Taste," and, although probably very few inhabitants of his native village of Belley have read it, yet all venerate his memory as that of one who knew what to eat and how it should be cooked. A statue to Brillat-Savarin is soon to be erected at Belley.

ALL GOURMETS IN BELLEY

To this day they are all gourmets in Belley from the farm laborer to the most aristocratic chatelain. In the humblest cottage cooking recines have been handed down from generation to generation, and the daily family fare would do honor to the table of any first class hotel in Paris, New York or London. The kitchen is a cult with them. Nay, more, it is a religion. And there are no unbelievers. To spoil a sauce in that happy land is worse than a blunder: it is a wicked act. The Duc de Conde's chef who ran his sword through his body because he had overlooked the fish, certainly came from the country of Billat-Savarin.

In the chateau of Bugey ancient culinary recipes are preserved and respected like the family arms. When a dinner party is given, the mistress of the house, be she Countess or Baroness, supervises personally every detail and phase of the cooking.

There is an old inn at Belley which Gargantua today would make his headquarters, for the ordinary dejeuner and dinner served there daily would be banquets anywhere else. The other day a Parisian strayed in and found at a table an American millionaire and his family, a famous playwright, a priest, an Admiral, besides half a dozen peasants in smocks. The menu included timbale de queues d'ecrevisses, parfait foie gras aux truffles, epaule de mouton, rate des genets, cepes a la creme, ecrevisses, cheese and pastry. The servant seemed surprised when the Parisian had to avow himself vanquished and regretfully compelled to leave some of the succulent dishes almost untouched. Dishes fit for a King, though, they were indeed.

The innkeeper, one of the old school, proudly told the stranger that he himself was the chef, as his father and grandfather and great-grandfather had been before him. He is a conservative to the backbone and refuses to make any change whatever in the traditional manner of preparing the old dishes.

CITY LOSES SUIT AGAINST TRIBUNE

Chicago Judge Sustains Demurrer In Libel Action Brought By Mayor

FREEDOM OF PRESS UPHELD

Maintaining Of Action Would Enable Officials To Intimidate Newspapers

Chicago, Oct. 15.—Holding that the suit "is not in harmony with the genius, spirit and objects of our institutions," Judge Harry M. Fisher in the Circuit Court today sustained the demurrer of the Chicago Tribune to the $10,000,000 libel suit brought by Mayor Thompson and other officials in the name of the City of Chicago.

Judge Fisher gave judgment for the defendant, but withheld the formal order dismissing the suit to permit the city to argue a motion for permission to file an amended declaration. In his decision Judge Fisher declared that amendment of the declaration would avail nothing.

Regarding the effect of maintaining the suit, Judge Fisher said:

"Stripped of all the elaborate argument, in the confusion of which the question for decision might look difficult, the fact remains that, if this action is maintainable, then public officials have in their power one of the most effective instruments with which to intimidate the press and to silence their enemies. It is a weapon to be held over the head of every one who dares print or speak unfavorably of the men in power."

After reviewing the action, which was brought because the Tribune attacked the local administration and charged that it had bankrupted the city, the court took up freedom of speech and the duties of newspapers.

"The freedom of speech and the press was at the very inception of our Government regarded as indispensable to a free State," he said. "There is need of so much knowledge in our complicated social order that unless we were advised bythose who are are expert in collecting information and disseminating it we would be helpless.

"The press has become the eyes and ears of the world, and, to a great extent, humanity in contact with all its parts. It is the spokesman of the weak and the appeal of the suffering. It holds up for review the acts of our officials and of thoes men in high places who have it in their power to advance peace or endanger it. It is the force which unifies public sentiment. But for it, the acts of public benefactors would go unnoticed, impostors would continue undismayed and public office would be the rich reward of the unscrupulous demagogue."

The Judge quoted from the Illinois Constitution of 1870, which provided that "every person may freely speak, write and publish on all subjects, being responsible for the abuse of that liberty."

"The Court has no more sympathy with newspapers indulging in scandal and defamations than have the most bitter assailants of the press," said Judge Fisher. "But the remedy is not to be found in new law, suppressing publication."

The Warwick Co.

Wholly quaint and original is the plot of "A Bill of Divorcement" which is to be the new offering of the Warwick Comedy Company at the Lyceum theater tonight. The play will be presented for three nights.

When this play, which looks some years into the future, was originally presented in London it created an unusual amount of discussion, not only in the press but also among the legal profession and the clergy. While the play deals with a serious subject it has not a little comedy in its composition and it ranks as one of the biggest recent London successes. The cast which will present the play tonight includes the Misses Majory Clark, Joan Mayne, Lena Flowerdew, Nina Bradley and Messrs. N. Thorpe Mayne, Dudley Howarth, Tom Fenwick, Frank Wheatley and Charles Bradley.

The company will present "The Double Event" on Saturday.

The Automobile Show And The Chinese

THE Automobile Show now in progress at Verdun Gardens is without doubt one of the finest exhibitions of the kind ever staged anywhere, and those fortunate ones who have seen the show are unable to find words with which to express either their praise or their astonishment.

Perfect as the exhibition is, however, it has been lacking, thus far, in the one thing necessary to make it the complete success that it deserves to have, and that is: a sufficient Chinese patronage.

The reason the Chinese people have not attended the show in large numbers is due, we believe, to a failure on the part of the management to apply certain time-tried and tested rules which from time immemorial have been practiced by the promoters of exhibitions such as this.

For one thing, there has been an utter lack of management in the handling of complimentary tickets and passes which are always of necessity part and parcel of an enterprise of this kind. Exhibitors have found themselves and their employes barred out of the building. Contractors have been unable to get their workmen past the doors, with the result, in one instance at least, that Chairman White, of the Building Committee, had to purchase regular admission tickets for the employes of a decorator whom he had engaged to beautify the building. No press badges were issued, which has meant that reporters and editors who went to the exhibition to write accounts of it for their publications have had to pay their way in. The publisher of the only motor trade journal in this part of the world has had to pay his way in several times. The managing director of a daily newspaper paid his way in twice, and once was threatened with ejection because the badge that had been given to him was not the right one.

Mr. West, the manager of the enterprise, himself experienced in automobile show management and in publicity methods as well, informed the show committee long ago that no amount of printed advertising and publicity would of itself be enough to induce the Chinese to attend the show. He argued that after the advance publicity, the "word of mouth" advertising would help greatly, and urged that hundreds of Chinese business men be invited to the show so they, in turn, could tell their friends about it, and in that way stir up an interest in the enterprise in Chinese quarters.

In this position, Mr. West was speaking not only from his own experience, but from that of every successful show manager that ever lived. At home, when a circus starts out on a tour, an advance agent goes ahead, with advertising literature and bales of free tickets. These tickets he gives away, not because he has any charitable impulses toward those to whom he gives them, but because he knows that the recipients of the tickets will become pro-circus from the day they get the coveted pasteboards.

This is China's first automobile show, which is all the more reason why the management should have made it extremely easy, rather than extremely difficult, to get into the buildings. An automobile show, to the Chinese, is a new thing. They do not understand it, nor do those of their number who do not own cars have any special interest in it.

And for that very reason every possible precaution should have been taken to insure the largest possible volume of what, after all, is the best advertising in the world, attendance.

Now that the Shanghai motor car men have gone to trouble and expense of putting on this show, it behooves them to make sure that every potential Chinese motor car buyer has a chance to see it.

If the Chinese people of Shanghai do not visit the show, the greatest value of it will be lost, and it is better that they see it free of all charge, than not at all, because if they see this show, and once get the motor show habit, it will be easier to interest them next year, and the years after that.

Fukien Now On The Fence

By Orrin Keith

Note: Readers will recall the brilliant series of articles on the Siberian-Japanese situation and on the ping-pong politics of Peking from the pen of Mr. Keith. This searching mind is now at work in Southern China, for THE CHINA PRESS. Mr. Keith is going all the way through the Southern Constitutionalist movement. Herewith we present his first article:

FUKIEN Province is just off the great highways between the north and the south of China. The land route passes to the west of the mountain barrier which separates the province from the interior and the difficulties of her harbors have led the great ships to pass them by in their hurry to get to Shanghai or Hongkong. But Fukien is a principality in itself. It has an area of more than 45,000 square miles and a population of nearly fifteen million. Where Fukien stands in the approaching struggle between Canton and Peking is therefore a matter of some importance.

The Lord of Fukien is one, Li Hou-chi. General Li was one of Yuan Shih-kai's trusted subordinates in the "Model Army" and when the dictator parcelled the fair fields of China among his followers in 1912 Fukien fell to Lord Li. Ever since that time it has been his to do with as he chose—and he has done so. The isolation of the province has made outside control extremely difficult and it is fairly well understood that, since the fall of his chief, Lord Li's allegiance to Peking has been largely a matter of fiction. Not that he has taken any step against the central government. His professions have always been unexceptionable. But as for obedience to the behests of the capital, such things must be considered on their merits!

Li Hou-chi lives in the great yamen of the governor. He lives such a life as the robber barons of the Middle Ages used to live. His castle is a veritable fortress and every turn and twist of the approach is lined with troops and covered with machine-guns. In the castle yard are parked sixteen field-guns, excellent for street work and ready for instant use. Apparently Lord Li does not place too much reliance upon the favor of his people.

Despite the frowning exterior, however, all is luxury within. Spacious halls, garnished with silk and teakwood, look upon most beautiful gardens, glorious with flowers and mirror-pools. The tables groan with the meats and fruits of many lands and the pride of many a vineyard renders its last service in making bouyant the hearts of the puissant vessels of the Lord of Fukien.

Amidst this splendor Li moves majestically, like the prince he is. He is large, ponderous, one might inadvertently use the word "gross" if it were not for the presence of some of his attendant generals who so obviously have a better right to this word than their chief. His face is that of the typical mandarin, fat, pudgy, draped in tremendously long, drooping mustachios, and more sly than intelligent. When the great Tuchun greets a visitor, however, this face becomes one vast smile kept in continuous motion by a series of subterranean giggles.

For every question the overcurious visitor may ask, General Li has ready a suitable Confucian maxim and by means of such platitudes he apparently expects to disarm all criticism. Asked as to his opinion of the Canton government, he replies that the man who wants peace and quiet in the country is the good man, while the man who would stir up the people to make war is a robber!

To hear him say it, even in Chinese, one would think that Dr. Sun was a villainous desperado while the immaculate Li, living upon a plane far above all worldly things, had no idea of the existence of such things as rulers who robbed their people under the forms of law and who had so entrenched themselves that war and revolution were the only means left to the people to rid themselves of the burden. But outside the yamen one hears another story. Detailed accounts of justice sold, of villages pillaged, of rich men blackmailed, of Christian workers held for ransom, of innocent men thrown into prison, come in from all directions.

Among all the people with whom I talked in Foochow, I found not one who would say a better word for General Li than the exigencies of the speaker's position demanded. Officials, merchants, missionaries, and foreign traders, damned him openly or with faint praise. General Li claims to have 40,000 troops in the province, yet he is unable or unwilling to keep order. Tufeis and brigands abound, even in the neighborhood of the capital itself. The mainspring of all governmental action is the extortion of money. When money was being raised for famine relief, orders were issued that all contributions must be sent in through the Tuchun and he promised not to take more than thirty percent for himself!

General Li is the type and example of the old style mandarin against which the Canton movement is directed. His government is a military dictatorship and its main function is to collect money for the dictator. Quite naturally, General Li professes loyalty to Peking. His real interest, however, seems to be in the status quo. Anyone like Dr. Sun who would disturb the status quo is a "robber" and worthy of all condemnation. What General Li wants is "peace"—and a free hand.

That there are things in the back of his head which rank higher than Peking in his estimation is indicated by his attempt to evade the question as to whether, in the event of a real civil war between the North and the South, Fukien would become involved and on which side. "That," said Tuchun Li, with his blandest smile, "is a matter to be determined at the last moment!"

There was much more of truth in his answer than he intended to put in it. The people of Fukien are almost unquestionably in favor of the Canton government. But it has the military power. He will determine in the first instance upon which side the weight of Fukien shall be thrown. As long as it is to his interest to play with the Peking authorities, he will do so. If the Southerners make headway, however, and it begins to look as if they might win, General Li will have emissaries at the Southern headquarters making overtures to assist the Southern cause. If the terms are favorable, Fukien will join in the "move for a real republic."

But that is a matter to be determined at the last moment.

(Note: Mr. Keith's second article, dealing with the Japanese in Peking will appear in tomorrow's CHINA PRESS.)

Chita Sends Japan Ultimatum

(Dalta News Agency)

Chita (by mail), Nov. 22.—On the 17th instant the Russian Delegation at Dairen delivered the following Note of the Far Eastern Republic to the Japanese Delegation for transmission to the Minister of Foreign Affairs of Japan:

"The Government of the Far Eastern Republic, notwithstanding the presence of the Japanese occupation forces in the territory of the Far Eastern Republic, resolved to enter into negotiation with the Government of Japan for the purpose of establishing friendly relations between the Far Eastern Republic and Japan so as to enable the population of both the countries to cooperate in the peaceful pursuits of industry and commerce.

"This was of the opinion that the agricultural development of the Republic would favorably affect the commercial and industrial interests of Japan. Entering into the Dairen negotiations with the representatives of the Japanese Government, the plenipotentiaries of the Far Eastern Repblic were convinced that the main obstacle in the way of peaceful collaboration between the two countries was the presence of Japanese forces in the Maritime Province and other territory of the Far Eastern Republic as well as the existence in these localities of the Russian organisations and armed detachments hostile to the Far Eastern Republic and constantly supported by the Japanese Military Command.

"This government was convinced that simultaneously with the opening of negotiation for friendship between Japan and the Republic at Dairen, the Japanese Government would begin the evacuation of its forces from the territory of the Far Eastern Republic and would take proper steps to prevent the protection of organisations and armed detachments hostile to the Republic by the Japanese Military Command.

DECLARED NON-SUPPORT

"The representatives of the Japanese Government have declared during the negotiations to the representatives of the Far Eastern Republic that in the future no support to these rebel organisations and detachments will be afforded by the Japanese Military Command and the Japanese Government.

"The Republic regrets to state that the declaration of the Japanese representatives has not been realised, as it is in possession of a large number of facts proving that during the negotiation for friendship and peaceful trade between the representatives of Japan and the Far Eastern Republic, the rebel organisation in the districts occupied by the Japanese forces have been continuously supported indirectly by the Japanese detachments and Japanese authorities in their struggle against the Far Eastern Republic.

"As late as September the Japanese military authorities supplied arms to the rebellious White Guard detachments, and, moreover, with each of these detachments of the rebels a certain number of Japanese military officers were invariably attached during their expeditions against the local population.

JAPANESE AID REBELS

"The assault upon the military post of the Far Eastern Republic Army at the village Bassianovka on November 15 was carried out by 35 men, 33 being Japanese soldiers and 2 being Russian soldiers attired in Japanese uniforms. On November 16 in the region of Vladimiro-Alexandrov-Suchan joint military movements were undertaken by the Japanese soldiers and Russian rebel detachments.

"Besides similar cases of direct support to the military detachments and organisations hostile to the Far Eastern Republic, indirect assistance to these organisations and detachments have never been discontinued. The organisation of the Russian reactionaries, the Merkuloff Government, continues to sell its illegally-acquired private property located at Vladivostok and its vicinity, where transactions on this property are undertaken by Japanese business firms with the consent of the Japanese authorities.

"Indignant over such acts, the Russian population of the Maritime Province is attempting to protect their lives and property by their own forces. This self-defense, assuming the form of Partizan movements, often leads to the destruction of the property of the Far Eastern Republic in the Maritime Province and to armed conflicts in that region. The brutal actions of the Russian counter-revolutionaries in the districts of Japanese occupation during the last month reached the limit.

ENVOY IS SLAIN

"In Vladivostok and its vicinity mass arrests of entirely innocent peaceful population are taking place. The arrested people are subject to all kinds of inquisition and are shot by scores without any trial. In October Mr. Zeitlin, the representative of the Far Eastern Republic dispatched to Vladivostok for the purpose of putting an end to the lawlessness and devastation there, was murdered. The responsibility for all the lawlessness and cruelty of the counter-revolutionary organisations of Vladivostok and its vicinity rests not with them alone.

"Indirectly the responsibility rests with the Japanese Military Command and the Japanese Government, which, by their continuation of the intervention thereby assisting and supporting the counter-revolutionary organisations and detachments, are enabling them to commit violence over the Russian population without fear of punishment for their criminal actions.

"In declaring to you all the aforesaid facts, the Government of the Far Eastern Republic once more protests against the violence committed upon the citizens of the Maritime Province, and emphasises that it will be possible to put an end to the violence and to establish order in the southern part of the Maritime Province only in the case of cessation of direct and indirect Japanese support to the activities of the Russian counter-revolutionary detachments and organisations and in the case of evacuation of Japanese forces from the territory of the Far Eastern Republic.

"This Government thinks that it is possible to bring the negotiations now in progress at Dairen to a satisfactory conclusion. However, both the parties concerned will be able to conclude a treaty on peaceful economic relations only under the condition of practical evacuation of Japanese forces from the territory of the Far Eastern Republic, which would prove the sincerity of the intentions of the Japanese Government respecting the Far Eastern Republic.

Pengkalan Durian Estate (1921) Meeting

The Statutory General Meeting of the Shareholders of the Pengkalan Durian Estate (1921), Ltd., was held at the Offices of the Secretaries and General Managers of the Company, Messrs. J. P. Bisset & Company, No. 1 The Bund, Shanghai, yesterday morning. Mr. L. E. Canning, C. B. E., presided, being supported by Messrs. E. W. Noel and G. M. W. Hummel, Directors, and Mr. A. H. Hatherly, representing the Secretaries and General Managers, who also acted as Secretary to the Meeting. The shareholders present in person or by proxy represented 24,283 Shares.

The notice convening the meeting having been read, the Chairman said: "Gentlemen, There being the requisite number of shareholders present and shares rpresented, I will proceed with the business of the meeting.

"This meeting has been called to comply with the Hongkong Ordinances which, as you know, require every Company limited by Shares to hold a Statutory Meeting within three months from the date the Company is entitled to commence business. The Company was entitled to commence business as from the 30th August, 1921.

"It is my duty now to submit to you the Statutory Report, copies of which have been in your hands for several days and which, with your approval, I will take as having been read. In regard to the share capital of the Company, the total number of Shares allotted is 68,184 shares of Tls. 1.00 each, of which 60,000 Shares have been allotted as fully paid up, as consideration for the transfer of the net assets of the Pengkalan Durian Estate, Limited, and 8,184 new shares have been alotted and fully paid up in cash. The application list for Shareholders non-resident in China does not close before the 6th January, 1922, up to which time it it expected further applications for new shares will be received.

"In this connection I would say that in view of the recent appreciation in the value of rubber and the resulting demand for rubber shares, I think it very probable that most of the shareholders will take up the total number of shares for which they are entitled to apply.

"You will notice that the final accounts of the late Company have not been completed, and it is therefore not possible at present to place before you an accurate statement of the assets and liabilities taken over. A list of shareholders is lying on the table and is open for your inspection.

"That is all I have to say Gentlemen, but if any member has any question to ask, rising out of the statutory report or relating to the formation of the Company, I shall be pleased to answer them to the best of my ability.

There being no questions asked I will propose the following Resolution:

"That the Statutory Report as presented be adopted." The resolution was seconded by Mr. N. W. Noel.

TEXACO CRATER COMPOUND

The Great Gear Lubricant

Texaco Crater Compound is a special lubricant for heavy gears and wire rope. It preserves gears; shields them from dust and dirt, prevents friction, and eliminates machinery noise. Use "Crater" on all heavy gears working under conditions of extreme pressure. It clings to gear teeth when nothing else will, but is fluid enough to allow free lubrication.

As a preservative for wire rope and chains, Texaco Crater Compound is invaluable. It forms a film of lubricant which protects from the action of weather, chemical fumes and contaminated water.

Wire rope and chains coated with "Crater" will last twice as long.

Gears lubricated with it will work noiselessly and more efficiently.

Scientists Schism Healed By Courts

(Special To The China Press)

Boston, Nov. 28.—The trustees of the Christian Science Publishing Society have notified the board of directors of the First Church of Boston that they would accept as final the ruling of the Massachusetts Supreme Court that directors have power over trustees.

The decision settled a civil war within the Christian Science church that has been raging for several years, both sides claiming to be the final authority in church matters. The trustees publish the church paper, The Christian Science Monitor, and other church publications and the directors are members of the First Church, the church founder by Mary Baker Eddy.

"PRICELESS"

is a popular way of describing anything which has proved to be of exceptional value, and may therefore be employed to describe that old and favourite preparation—Beecham's Pills. The ever-increasing army of men and women who have experience of this excellent medicine generally use some such phrase as "priceless" or "Worth a guinea a box" when speaking of Beecham's Pills. This is certainly high praise. But it is well-merited. Beecham's Pills have proved, times out of number, to be a "priceless" preparation in the treatment of digestive ailments. They bring relief; they safeguard the health; they effect remarkable cures. All who suffer in any way from biliousness, sick headache, constipation, impaired appetite, and the resulting loss of energy and want of tone should take

COOLIES JAILED FOR TAMPERING WITH U. S. MAIL

The four coolies charged with tampering with United States mails aboard the T.K.K. steamer Korea Maru on November 21, while shifting cargo at Woosung were convicted and sentenced in the Mixed Court yesterday.

The chief offender was sent to jail for six months and the others for three months each. Testimony in the case indicated that the men were engaged in unloading Shanghai cargo, in order to get at which they had to move cargo, including U. S. Parcels post packages, bound for Manila. Thirty of these packages were found broken open when the ships officers got word that pilfering was going on. Further investigation revealed the fact that 100 hats, removed from the parcels, had been tied up in a quilt and lowered into one of the lighters alongside.

The four men arrested were found in possession of several other hats taken from the mail packages.

During the hearing of the case Assessor Tenny commented that the proper procedure would have been to call in the river police, but Mr. C. M. de Senna, of the T.K.K. stated that as the ship was a mail ship and under urgent pressure to sail there had been only time to send the men up by the tender and turn them over to the local police.

The four will serve their sentences in the City prison.

WORLD POLICIES TOPIC OF ADDRESS BY DR. WOOLLEY

"A New Factor in World Policies" is the subject which Dr. Mary E. Woolley will speak on at the coming meeting of The Pan-Pacific Association Saturday noon of this week at the Carlton Cafe.

Dr. Woolley is a woman of unusual experience and ability, well known as an educator and her address should be of unusual value and interest. At present she is in Shanghai as a member of the China Educational Commission. Before leaving America she had just successfully completed a campaign for G. $5,000,000, for new buildings and equipment of Mt. Holyoke College, of which she is president.

Dr. Woolley is an international figure and has active interests not only in China and America, but also in India, where she is a director of the Madras Union College for women, and in Constantinople, where she is a member of the Board of Trustees of the Constantinople Woman's College. She also has the distinction of being a director of the Hall of Fame, New York, and Chairman of the Massachussett's Committee on Citizenship of the League of Women Voters.

The other speakers at Saturday's meeting, as already announced, are Major-General William M. Black, who will speak on the subject of the Whangpoo Conservancy, and Dr. K. L. Butterfield, President of Massachussett Agricultural College, who will speak on World Agriculture.

Those desirous of attending this meeting, which is an open one, should communicate with the secretary, Mr. G. A. Fitch, 120 Szechuen Road, in order that proper provision may be made for seating. Ladies will be welcome at the meeting.
